

SILVER PULSE

I walked in slow
You looked right through
Cold glass on my skin
Then I found you
Hands on the rail
Hearts in the night
Your name in my chest
Burning so bright

Hold that line
Don't let it go
One more step
Then we explode

Rise up now
Rise up now
We don't fall
We light the town
Rise up now
Rise up now
Hold my hand
We spin around

I'm not the same man
That came in here
I broke that shell
I shook that fear
Your voice came low
Like thunder in gold
Now every breath
Feels loud and bold

Hold that line
Don't let it go
One more step
Then we explode

Rise up now
Rise up now
We don't fall
We light the town
Rise up now
Rise up now
Hold my hand
We spin around

Oh-oh, hear it call
Oh-oh, through the wall
We were made for this
We rise, we rise

Rise up now
Rise up now
We don't fall
We light the town
Rise up now
Rise up now
Hold my hand
We spin around
Rise up now
Rise up now
(we rise, we rise)
Hold my hand
We spin around
